ABSTRACT

IDENTIFIERS

The course described in this pamphlet will help the student construct his or her own garments and participate in the planning, preparation, production, and presentation of a show which will include modeling the garment and other variety-type acts. Designed for junior or senior year high school students, it is recommended that he or she successfully meet the objectives of the course "Novice Knowledge in Sewing" or the course "Sew-So-Easy." Included in the course are an outline of the behavioral outcomes with suggested content ideas, learning opportunities, resources, and a course content outline. Appended are a participation preference form and a sample program. (Author/BP)

COURSE DESCRIPTION

Using previously acquired sewing skills, the student will construct his or her own garment(s) and participate in the planning, preparation, production and presentation of a show which will include modeling the garment(s) and other variety-type acts.

COURSE ENROLLMENT GUIDELINES

This course is for junior or senior high school students and is not a beginning sawing course. The student should have had previous sawing experience. It is recommended that he or she has successfully met the objectives of the course, Novice Knowledge in Sawing and/or the course, Saw-So-Rasy.

RATIONALE

In addition to the opportunity to further develop sawing skills, The Pashion Show offers opportunities for students to explore many areas of interest such as designing, costume making, art work, creative writing, modeling and dencing. Since the final production presented to the community depends upon the cooperative afforts of many, the experience of working together toward a common goal is invaluable.

POREWORD

This course of study has been developed by teachers as part of an effort to make Home and Family Education more meaningful and interesting to students. It is not intended to be a prescription for teaching, but rather an aid to the teacher in meeting the objectives. The wealth of activities and resources are intended to be examples from which the teacher can select those that best meet the needs of the students. To facilitate continuity it is recommended that the teacher be selective in choosing activities, but maintain all objectives within the course. Where content ideas are given, they are intended to be general notes and suggestions from the writer(s) to the teacher to further explain Objectives and activities. This first edition is a Working Copy and it is hoped that the teacher will note suggested changes and additions while using it in order to aid in future revision. This course of study was developed under the direction and leadership of Mrs. Martha Lee La Croix, Supervisor, and Mrs. Margaret Hein, Teacher on Special Assignment, Home and Family Education. Sincere appreciation is extended to Richard L. Morehead who served as a consultant in the writing of this course of study.
